Global Award Leadership Experience Selection Committee (GALESC)

Committee Purpose

The committee is responsible for reviewing Global Award and Leadership Experience nominations and selecting recipients, through a fair and effective process, in fact and in appearance, on an annual basis, who reflect IMA's Mission and Global Core Values.

Committee Responsibilities

- Responsible for fairly considering and reviewing all nominations received, included in the GALESC SOP, unless otherwise noted, via IMA's annual Call for Nominations for the GALESC.
- Will successfully select Global Award recipients and Leadership Experience participants (Young professionals and Students)

Committee Member Requirements

- Understands and embraces IMA's Mission and Global Core Values
- IMA member in good standing who is not applying to participate in a special experience or being nominated for any of the IMA Global Awards
- Has time to serve and an interest in volunteering with the organization
- IMA member who has knowledge of IMA volunteer opportunities and governance framework

Terms of Service, Time, and Travel Commitment

- All members, excluding the Chair and Chair-Emeritus positions of the GALESC, will each serve a one-year term with the ability to serve up to three years.
- The Committee Chair and member of the Emeritus Committee positions will be a one-year term.
- The Committee will publish a meeting schedule and may meet as often as deemed appropriate. Meetings may be called by the Committee Chair, in coordination with the Staff Liaison.
- Most commit members will constitute a quorum, as defined by IMA's bylaws. Approval of a motion or other action will require a majority vote of the members present and voting, except those written actions must be by unanimous written consent.
- Meetings may be in person or by telephone conference call or other electronic means so long as each member can communicate with all the other members during such calls.
- Minutes shall be maintained with respect to all meetings.
- Decisions on selected Global Award recipients and Leadership Experience participants will be provided to the VLC and Global Board of Directors.

Travel Costs

No travel is required.

- Committee members may serve a maximum of six consecutive one-year terms as per Board Policy D-115.
