RATES & SPECS

GENERAL CONDITIONS

- A. Publisher will accept advertisements that are consistent with the tone of the publication and considered to be in the area of general interest to the intended audience.
- B. Advertisements are accepted upon the representation that advertisers have the right to publish the contents thereof. Advertisements must be factual, not misleading, and must not misrepresent any competing product or service or make unfair or incomplete comparisons. Publisher, at its own discretion, can reject any advertisement it considers not germane or containing claims that are conjectural or contentious, without specifying cause, regardless of whether such advertisement was previously accepted.
- C. Publisher accepts advertisements at its standard rates, and proposal or requests for advertisement based on reciprocal dealings will not be accepted. Publisher's suppliers, resellers, or sale agents are cautioned that solicitation by publisher's agents on any other basis is unauthorized.
- D. Conditions, other than rates, are subject to change without notice.
- E. The positioning of ads is at the discretion of the publisher except where a specific requested preferred position is acknowledged by publisher in writing.
- F. Publisher shall have no liability for errors in key numbers.
- G. Advertisements not received by the published closing dates will not be entitled to revision by the advertiser or its agency.
- H. Cancellations or changes cannot be made after the closing date. All insertion orders are accepted subject to provisions of our current rate card. Rates are subject to change upon notice from the publisher. Should a change in rate be made, space reserved may be cancelled by the advertiser or its agency at the time the changes become effective without incurring short-term charges, provided the advertisements published to the date of cancellation are consistent with the appropriate frequency or volume rate.
- I. Publisher shall not be liable for any costs or damages if for any reason it fails to publish an advertisement.
- J. Publisher's sole liability for printing an advertisement with errors or omissions caused by publisher is to run corrected advertisements at the earliest opportunity, with or without acknowledgement, or to credit an equitable portion of the charge for the error or incomplete advertisement at the sole discretion of the publisher. Advertiser agrees to promptly review each advertisement immediately after publication and advise publisher of any errors or omissions. Publisher's sole liability for omission of an ad is to refund any charges paid.
- K. Except for the above, publisher assumes no liability for errors, omissions, or omissions of an advertisement for any reason whatsoever. Advertiser shall indemnify publisher against all claims by third parties based upon any actual or alleged error, omission, misrepresentation, or infringement of any intellectual property rights by the advertisement.
- L. Publisher shall have the right to hold advertiser and/or its advertising agency liable for money due and payable to publisher for advertising that advertiser or its agency ordered and that was published.
- M. No conditions other than those set forth in this rate card shall be binding on the publisher unless specifically agreed to in writing by the publisher. Publisher will not be bound by conditions printed on or appearing on order blanks or comply with instructions that conflict with provisions on rate card.
- N. Publisher is not liable for delays in delivery and/or nondelivery in the event of an act of God, action by government entity, fire, flood, insurrection, riot, explosion, embargo, strikes (whether legal or illegal), labor or material shortage, transportation, interruption of any kind, work slowdown, or any condition beyond the control of the publisher affecting production/delivery in any manner.
- O. Advertisers agree that publisher has no obligation to maintain the confidentiality of submitted material until publication date and that while publisher may, at advertiser request, adopt procedures to restrict dissemination of submitted materials to lessen the risk of disclosure, publisher has no liability for its failure to do so.
- P. Publisher reserves the unrestricted right to conspicuously add the word "advertisement" to any submitted material if the publisher feels it advisable to do so.
- As used in this section titled "General Conditions," the term "publisher" shall refer to IMA.
